Civil Action No.: _____

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

TO: Clerk of the Court
United States District Court for the District of New Jersey
Mitchell H. Cohen Building & U.S. Courthouse
Fourth & Cooper Streets
Camden, New Jersey 08101

DEFENDANT'S NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Defendant Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. ("Defendant"), by and through its attorney, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1441 and 1446, files this Notice of Removal with respect to the above captioned case, which was filed and currently is pending in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Law Division, Camden County, Docket No. CAM-L-3090-17. In support of its Notice of Removal, Defendant states as follows:

Background And Timeliness

1. On August 7, 2017, Plaintiff filed his Complaint and Request for Production of Documents Pursuant to R. 4:18-1 in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Camden County.
2. Defendant received service of process of the Complaint and document requests on August 25, 2017.
3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), true and correct copies of the Complaint, Summons, and document requests are attached hereto as Exhibit A, which constitute “all summons, pleadings, and orders” served upon Defendants. Because Defendant has filed this Notice of Removal within thirty days of service, this Notice of Removal is timely. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

Basis for Removal

4. The ground for removal is federal question under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, in that Plaintiff’s Complaint alleges federal causes of action, specifically:
 - (a) A claim pursuant to the federal Fair Labor Standards Act. See Compl. ¶¶ 30-39.
 - (b) A claim pursuant to the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. See Compl. ¶¶ 50-55.
5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a), “any civil action brought in a State court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or the defendants, to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.”
6. Plaintiff’s claims arise under the laws of the United States within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Accordingly, this action is removable to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

7. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a), which provides that "in any civil action of which the district courts have original jurisdiction, the district courts shall have supplemental jurisdiction over all other claims that are so related to claims in the action within such original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution." Here, Plaintiff makes it clear in his Complaint that the same conduct by Defendant forms the basis of both his state and federal law claims. Defendant's purported failure to pay Plaintiff a premium wage for overtime work forms the basis for both Plaintiff's federal Fair Labor Standards Act claim and Plaintiff's New Jersey Wage Payment Law claim. (See Compl. ¶ 26 (alleging that "Defendants...failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime rate" in support of the New Jersey Wage Payment Law claim), ¶ 64 (alleging that "Defendants...failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime rate" in support of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act claim).) Likewise, Defendant's purported retaliation against Plaintiff for Plaintiff's decision to exercise certain rights based on an alleged disability forms the basis for both Plaintiff's federal Family and Medical Leave Act claim and Plaintiff's New Jersey Law Against Discrimination claim. (See Compl. ¶ 48 (alleging that "Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff as a result of his request for an accommodation and due to his disability, in violation of the LAD"), ¶ 53 (alleging that "Defendants terminated plaintiff in retaliation for making a request for FMLA leave and taking said leave....").)

8. A district court may decline to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over a claim if: (1) the claim raises a novel or complex issue of State law; (2) the claim substantially predominates over the claim or claims over which the district court has original jurisdiction; (3) the district court has dismissed all claims over which it has original jurisdiction; or (4) there are other compelling reasons for declining jurisdiction. None of these factors are present in the instant case.

Venue And Notice

9. This Notice of Removal has been filed within thirty (30) days after receipt of service of process and thus is timely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) and Rule 6 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

10. Removal is appropriate “to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a). Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 110, this Court embraces the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Law Division, Camden County. Accordingly, this Court is the appropriate venue for removal of this action. 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

11. Prompt written notice of this Notice of Removal will be sent to Plaintiff, and to the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Law Division, Camden County, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d).

Conclusion

12. Based on the foregoing, this Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331; therefore, this Court properly may exercise jurisdiction over this lawsuit. 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

13. Should Plaintiff seek to remand this case to state court, Defendant respectfully asks that it be permitted to brief and argue the issue of this removal prior to any order remanding this case. In the event the Court decides remand is proper, Defendant asks that the Court retain jurisdiction and allow it to file a motion asking this Court to certify any remand order for interlocutory review by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b).

14. WHEREFORE, Defendant submits that this action properly is removable based on federal question jurisdiction and respectfully request that the above-described action pending against it be removed to the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. Defendant also requests all other relief, at law or in equity, to which they justly are entitled.

CIVIL ACTION

COMPLAINT, CERTIFICATION

DESIGNATION OF TRIAL COUNSEL and DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, Victor Velazquez, who resides in Maple Shade, New Jersey, by way of Complaint against Defendants, says that:

1. Plaintiff, Victor Velazquez was employed by Defendant, Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. ("ODFL"), from 2012-2017 and was driving a tractor trailer for ODFL beginning in 2013.
2. Defendant, Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. is a less-than-truckload ("LTL") company which offers regional, inter-regional, and national LTL service as well as logistic services, supply chain consulting, transportation management, truckload brokerage, container delivery and warehousing, and household moving services; it contracts with freight forwarding services throughout the world.

3. Defendants conduct business and employed the Plaintiff in Camden County, New Jersey.

4. Upon information and belief, Defendants are responsible and vicariously liable for the actions of any subsidiaries which may possess an ownership interest in Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc., and for the actions of any alleged Human Resources entities which participated in the adverse employment actions alleged herein, (pled as "John Does 1-10").

5. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants qualified as an "employer" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:13A-3(c) and 10:5-5 and plaintiff was an "employee" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:13A-3(d) and 10:5-5.

6. During his employment, Plaintiff regularly worked more than 40 hours per week.

7. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was a non-exempt employee of the terms of the FLSA.

8. Defendants determined Plaintiff's rate and method of wage compensation during his employment.

9. Plaintiff began a period of leave pursuant to the Family Medical Leave Act in November of 2016 due to an issue with his sciatic nerve, and was cleared to return to work at the end of January 2017.

10. When he went back to work in January, defendants sent plaintiff for a physical which revealed he had diabetes.

11. As a result, defendants would not permit plaintiff to drive a truck until his blood sugar was stabilized.

12. Plaintiff requested an accommodation to work on the dock or as a "yard jockey."

13. Defendants told plaintiff the decision concerning an accommodation rested with plaintiff's terminal manager.

14. Plaintiff's manager told plaintiff no position with an accommodation was available.

15. Plaintiff next called defendants' representative under the Family Medical Leave Act who asked plaintiff how long he required to be out in order to get his blood sugar under control; plaintiff responded three (3) months.

16. Defendants told plaintiff they were not sure they could hold his job for him.

17. Plaintiff again requested to work with an accommodation and was again told by his manager that there was nothing available.

18. Plaintiff was successful at regulating his blood sugar in the minimum amount of time, but defendants told him they were letting him go because he took too much leave under the FMLA.

19. Defendants willingly, deliberately, and intentionally refused to pay Plaintiff for time actually worked, and for time and one-half pay for overtime worked.

20. Defendants knew Plaintiff was entitled to compensation for time actually worked and for time and one-half overtime pay under the FLSA.
